Chapter 1 by Artemis Kai (the Angel of Darkness)

"No, I really need to breathe." A young, tall girl pulled the crystal door open and stepped out, looking at the stars. She plopped herself down on a lawn chair and peered over her "glasses" at the waves. Satisfied that there was no one wearing a black rabbit mask in the water, she went back to observing the mystical balls of light, charting out the grey mists of clouds as she did so. The girl noticed that the moon was not visible, and that the star directly over her head was the brightest. Unbeknownst to her, however, was the Black Rabbit, a few hundred meters away. He took aim and readied his ukaku...

Darksage woke up abruptly, foliage dropping off her like flies. There was a stranger approaching, as she listened to the steady beat of the heavy footsteps. She hurriedly slipped down, covered the leaves over herself again as her stranger walked closer, and secured her camouflage. Darksage felt the footsteps stop, and a long, male drawl came from about the same location as where the footsteps stopped. "Dear dear, Darksage, I have your smell in my nose, your taste in my mouth. There is no escape now."
